Each year the Chairman of Bath & North East Somerset Council presents a number of different Awards to recognise the achievements of people who have made an exceptional contribution to the local community. Saltford Festival

Reflections on the Festival from the Chairman of SCA

Being 'old' (according to my teenage daughter) I tend to think of community spirit being something I saw first-hand when I was 5 or 6. My Grandmother knew everyone in the street; nowadays I doubt there are many people in this country who know all the people in their street by name. I saw it again recently in Ghana; at 6 pm it is pitch black and the evenings are whiled away talking with neighbours across the dark, unlit, square. Not only did everyone know everyone else but, because it was dark, they would recognise them just from their voice.

I found it a stirring sight during the festival week to see the community spirit of Saltford come alive, even against that most British of adversities, a torrential downpour. A number of the hardier (or is that fool-hardier?) residents had even given up with umbrellas! It was truly amazing to see such huge numbers come together to enjoy what Saltford had to offer; celebrating 50 years of the Saltford Community Association and 150 years of Saltford Primary School.

I was pleasantly surprised these days (maybe I am old!) just how many people knew each other by name; young and old alike. Toddlers were dancing at the disco; children making pots down the high street; teenagers playing their guitars and singing; adults enjoying the open mornings, music evenings and the walk around the village, to mention just a few events.

Indeed on the Monday there were a number of activities running simultaneously and we estimated that over 10% of the population of Saltford were at Festival events. With something for everyone this was a fantastic week! One I hope we all look back on with great memories and that leaves a legacy for the future.

Events like this take a phenomenal amount of organising and there are a great many of you who spent a year making this happen, too many to mention individually. This was a huge commitment for these volunteers and thanks to their efforts we have raised £18,000 for Saltford community organisations and that is what 'community' is really about; we help each other and in doing so help ourselves.

It's an honour for me to say thank you to all of you that were involved: the organisers, those who helped on the day, the performers, the generosity of the sponsors, those that gave gifts for the raffles and lastly, all of you that attended; because without you this would not have been possible.

What we all have achieved here should make our community justly proud.

Christmas in Saltford

I know that there will be waves of horror at the mention of Christmas in July! "We have only just recovered from the Festival" I can hear you say.

A great part of running successful events is, however, finding effective means and timing for communication. SCAN is one of our chief tools for spreading the word and there is no time better than the present.

A small group of us is planning a Christmas Market, in Saltford Hall, on Saturday December 3rd from 10.00am until 3.00pm. (This event is a development of the Christmas Craft Fair already advertised in the last edition of SCAN.) It is hoped that the format will follow the pattern for the Country Market that was so successful during the Festival week. Thank you to all those who gave us help with that.

We will be looking for help again to make The Christmas Market a community event to enjoy and one that will raise money. Below are suggestions for involvement:

- help in manning and collecting items for the following stalls: bric a brac, cakes, toys, books, jewellery, homemade and household items, tombola, toys, produce – jams, pickles, plants etc, nearly new clothing
- donations for stalls listed above
- offers of raffle/tombola items
- ideas

Saltford is blessed with Cake Makers. These people will be in great demand as will anybody with ideas for making and doing! We will, of course, invite our usual craft and produce makers to rent some of the stalls to assure the vibrant, varied and lively atmosphere that has become the attraction of these events (Diane Areskog 01225 874986) Delicious food will be served all day and rumour has it that Father Christmas has been asked to attend. His grotto is under design but as he is away at the moment we have no confirmation of his availability.

More details of this event and other events connected with Christmas in the next edition of SCAN. Offers of help to Diane Areskog 01225/874986, Eileen Ramuz 01225/873224 or Jill Williams 01225/872489

Saltford Townswomen's Guild

The May meeting was well attended and the Secretary ably combined her duties with that of the Chairman. Various notices and items of news were announced and the sick were wished speedy recoveries. After refreshments, members settled for an amusing morning with Paul Evans and his bright waistcoat. He gave us a very happy morning as he read various poems of a humorous content, employing the appropriate gestures and tone of voice to suit each item. It was almost as if a whole acting cast was in the room and there were many chuckles as he recited various items.

In June, the Secretary again combined her role of Secretary with that of Chairlady. Members noted various dates and then enjoyed a coffee break before Angela Grist gave her presentation on Mercy Ships. It was an inspiring and at times moving account of the work of a Mercy Ship along the African coast. Operations and treatment were carried out on the ship and she showed slides of the before and after pictures of the children and adults who had been treated. Members of the ship also went ashore to give general health advice and treatment.

Saltford Women's Institute

The speaker at our June meeting was Gerald Little who gave a very entertaining talk on the history of bank notes and the Bank of England during which samples of different notes from the past were passed around for the members to see.

At our July meeting, Sue Cooper, who had attended our National AGM in Liverpool gave members a report on the meeting.¹⁹

Our speaker was Mama from 'Oh La La' lingerie in The Mall, Clifton Village. Mama was assisted by her sister who modelled the underwear which she described as underwear for real women. She showed the different types of bras and how to get the correct fit and how to put on correctly. It was a very interesting and amusing evening.

This is a relatively quiet time of the year for us. The fruits (particularly the grapes) have not yet grown enough for us to be able to use them. Nevertheless, in June, we were entertained by Mr. Eric Gill, a Toastmaster, who related to us the various skills of his trade, his outfit (he needs four of these) and some of the anecdotes of situations and personalities that he has encountered. A most informative and entertaining evening.

The same evening there was also a Medium Dry Rose wine competition, which was won by Betty Haynes, in second place was Angie Dummott and third place was Tessa Lesser. Well done to them and all who took part.

Also in June, we joined Warmley Wine Circle on their annual outing to St. Fagan's at Cardiff and enjoyed an evening meal at The Abbey Mill, Tintern on the way home. The weather was very kind to us.

In July we celebrated the 40th Anniversary of the Wine Circle. We had a dinner and dance at the Saltford Golf Club. The wine flowed freely and a good time was had by all.

The day after, a group of us went to the Nailsea Wine Circle's BBQ at Failand Village Hall.

On the 12th August (7.45p.m. to 11.45p.m.), we are holding our Summer Dance at Saltford Hall. Live music is provided by Chris Stone, a two-course supper is provided. Tickets are still available @ £8 each. Entrance is by ticket only to be bought in advance (not on the door). Enquiries please to Angie Dummott on 01225 873493.
